IDAHO PEOPLE WELCOME INVADING SALT LAKERS

Entire Population of Montpelier at the Station to Greet the Wanderers From Zion.

Soda Springs Also Long on Hospitality — Grand Demonstration at Pocatello, the Railway Metropolis.

Pocatello, Ida., May 20 .- With all on board well, hearty and delighted over the magnificent cordiality of southern Ida-ho's reception, the special train bearing members of the Salt Lake Commercial made at Bancroft and at McCammen, en club left at an early hour this morning for St. Anthony. In the glorious sunshine paraded of a perfect spring day and to the acas the weather, the journey thus far has been accomplished. The day began at Montpelier and it began very early in the morning. It was just 7 o'clock when the special drew into the station, but the special drew into the station as the special drew into the special drew in the special drew into the station, but Mayor Cruikshank, J. A. Barrett, secretary of the Commercial club of Montpelier; J. R. Shepherd and Dr. E. F. Guyon constituted the official welcoming committee. They made it their business to look after the weifare of the guests and were unflagging in their attentions. Breakfast was just over when the train arrived and after half an hour spent in the exchange of greetings the parade was organized. Ahead of the band marched W. J. Halloran, president of the Commercial club of Salt Lake; then Mayor Cruikshank; then came the visitors, and after them the townspeople. After marching the length of Montpelier's principal business street the travelers entered earriages provided by the committee and drove to one of the hills west of the city. From this point a magnificient view of the valley was obtained.

archist demonstration did not take place. The Social Democrats, Social Revolutionists, part of the Group of Toil and others were absent from the house when the reslution was presented and adopted.

Stolypin Was Included.

In formally announcing the discovery of the plot, Premier Stolypin said that not only was the emperor's life aimed at, but the plotters intended to assassinate Grand himself. Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, brother-in-law of the emperor, and Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaevitch were among those present when the resolution was adopted.

At first they bought there through necessity, because Salt Lake was the only market for southern Idaho products. Now they buy and sell in Salt Lake as a matter of preference because they like Salt Lake's way of doing business.

Response by Fisher Harris.

After a splendidly sung selection by Miss Florence Underwood, the program was closed with a response by Fisher Harris, representing the Salt Lake delegation. Mr. Harris made a characteristic happy address. An hour of friend-making followed, during which a corps drawn from the women of Montpeller and headed by Mrs. Journe Padram corps.

Deputy Shirsky, a lawyer of Kuban, in behalf of the central committee of the Social Democrats, announced that his party had no connection with the plot and insinuated that if it really existed it was due to police provocation.
